AUDITOR OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS

Independent Accountant's Report

Robbie Rudolph, Secretary, Finance and Administration Cabinet
The Honorable James Lawson,
Menifee County Property Valuation Administrator
Frenchburg, Kentucky 40322

We have performed the procedures enumerated below, which were agreed to by the Menifee County Property Valuation Administrator, solely to assist you with the accountability for statutory contribution receipts and disbursements, including capital outlay disbursements, city government receipts, recordkeeping, and leases and contracts for the period July 1, 2003 through June 30, 2004. This engagement to apply agreed-upon procedures was performed in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of the procedures is solely the responsibility of the Menifee County Property Valuation Administrator. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose.

Our procedures and findings are as follows:

1. Procedure -

Determine if the Property Valuation Administrator has a receipts ledger, a disbursements ledger, and reconciles bank records to books each month.

Finding -

We determined that the Property Valuation Administrator did not maintain a receipts and disbursements ledger. Thus, he did not reconcile the ledgers to the bank statements. For documentation purposes, we recommend that ledgers be maintained and a written reconciliation be performed to agree bank records to the ledgers each month.

2. Procedure -

Compare recorded city receipts to confirmed payment amounts obtained from city governments. Also review the list of city receipts for completeness.

Finding -

The Property Valuation Administrator has not billed for payment or received any payment from the City of Frenchburg for Fiscal Year 2004. We recommend the Property Valuation Administrator check with the Department of Revenue to see what he is allowed to bill the City.

2. Procedure -

Compare the budgeted statutory contribution by fiscal court to the legally required amounts calculated by the Department of Revenue. Trace the fiscal court payments from the fiscal court statutory contribution budget account to the Property Valuation Administrator's local bank account.

Finding -

No exceptions noted.

4. Procedure -

Select a sample of disbursements from available Property Valuation Administrator's records and agree amounts to cancelled checks, paid invoices, or other supporting documentation. Determine if the expenditure is for official business.

Finding -

The Property Valuation Administrator did not maintain invoices during Fiscal Year 2004. Thus, the auditor could not perform a test of disbursements. We recommend the Property Valuation Administrator maintain all invoices and any other documentation to support all expenditures.

5. Procedure -

Compare capital outlay disbursements with cancelled checks, supporting documentation, and proper purchasing procedures. Verify the location of newly acquired assets.

Finding -

No exceptions noted.

6. Procedure -

Scan vehicle lease agreements, personal service contracts, and professional service contracts for cost schedules and compare to actual payments. Determine if services received were appropriate, for official business, and properly authorized.

Finding -

No exceptions noted.

We were not engaged to, and did not perform an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on the receipts and disbursements, including capital outlay disbursements, city government receipts, recordkeeping, and leases and contracts. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the use of the Property Valuation Administrator and Department of Revenue and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Respectfully submitted,
